the thoughts of students collected in ways of rhyme and pattern over barren lands of wordless woe, they come to cultivate the soil with each written word, happening when the pen greets the paper saying a lasting hello. they write in ways of poems, in thoughts expressing love or the sadness of a lonesome heart. short stories they also write in a fashion which condenses long thoughts in a vivid, explicit way. then to bring a lasting hold tying them together, the artists take their thoughts within and draw an everlasting picture. so from the staff of tamarack tower we hope to fill your souls with thoughts of joy that will bring all our minds closer together.
